Dear Mr Chapman

We hope that your and your lady have had a pleasant trip and that your passage likewise will be an agreeable one.

In accordance with your wishes we have forwarded to you with same post the illustrated catalogue of Page II - just fresh from the press - and we shall send catalogue Page I in about a week directly to Philadelphia. The many plates are the cause, that part I appears later than part II.

We enclose copy of your commission for both sales & shall receive from further commission with pleasure.

We hope that you will be very content with the result of your European trip and that we shall see you soon and than longer than this live again and remain,
Dear Sir Yours

very truly

Dear Sir!

Many thanks for your splendid catalogue Jenks, splendid in every respect.

It is a pity that it arrived only to-day - too late for giving commission, and I have only the very "desolate consolation" that even, if it had come in time, it would have been impossible under the present circumstances for poor Mark to fight against the almighty dollar.

Hoping that more fortunate auspices will permit us soonly to renew our old relations, I remain, dear Sir,

Yours

Dear Sir!

J wrote to You on 29th. November and as since then the great change in the valuation of the Mark has taken place, J come to write You to make me offers after the sale of all the lots You should have bought for Yourself or which have been taken back. Number of the lots and price will be sufficient.

Change is still bad enough for Germany but the hunger for good coins is so strong with us that we notwithstanding might arrange business.

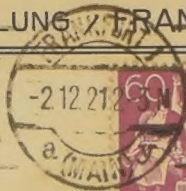

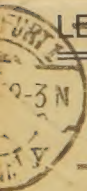

Yours very truly
